

I'm a free book. I'm not lost or forgotten. I was deliberately left here so you can take me with you and read me. Please visit www.bookcrossing.com and enter my BCID number (as given below). There you can see where I've been and who has read me. (You can stay anonymous.) My old friends will be happy to hear that I'm safe in your hands. When you've read me, please "release me into the wild", so I can continue my journey.
